

Stage 8

Paper 1 Non-fiction

Mark Scheme

Section A: Reading

Question	Answer	Marks
1	Look at the first paragraph (lines 1–5). The writer uses a connective in the third sentence. Why? Tick (✓) one box. Award 1 mark for: to contrast ideas.	1

Question	Answer	Marks
2	Look at the second paragraph (lines 6–9). The writer begins the first sentence with an adverb. What is the effect of this? Award 1 mark for any of the following ideas: - It emphasises/stresses/focuses attention on the negative (aspect of the voices/vocals) / the fact that only one vocal performance is good / that most vocal performances are bad. - It warns the reader that something negative is going to be said next / in contrast to the previous sentence(s). - It conveys the writer's negative attitude/opinion about the film. Accept any suitable response that conveys a similar idea. Do not accept, 'It conveys the writer's attitude/opinion without 'negative'.	1

Question	Answer	Marks
Look at the third paragraph (lines 10–15).
3(a)	Which robot's name is an example of assonance? Award 1 mark for: (Rodney) Copperbottom.	1
3(b)	The writer uses the word clutches. What does this tell the reader about the robot called Ratchet? Award 1 mark for: (Clutches literally means hold, but) the writer uses it figuratively to mean the robot is powerful / in control of / dominates/rules the city.	1

Question	Answer	Marks
Look at the fourth paragraph (lines 16–20).
4(a)	How does the first sentence link the third and fourth paragraphs? Award 1 mark for: - It makes a comparison (between the plot in the third paragraph and the look of the film in the fourth paragraph). - It summarises the previous paragraph (being about the plot) and introduces a new idea (of the look of the film).	1
4(b)	Why does the writer use a colon (:) in the second sentence? Award 1 mark for: to introduce a list (of words/phrases) that explains / adds information to the words before the colon.	1

Question	Answer	Marks
5	Look at the fifth paragraph (lines 21–23). Give one phrase which has a similar meaning to peppered with. Award 1 mark for: pops up every five minutes.	1

Question	Answer	Marks
6	Do you think the writer likes the film? Tick (✓) one box. Why? Give two reasons and support each reason with a quotation from the text. Award 1 mark for a relevant reason. Award 1 mark for an appropriate quotation. Accept part of a quotation as long as the original meaning is conveyed. Yes: <table><tr><th>Reason (why the writer likes the film)</th><th>Quotation</th></tr><tr><td>The film looks good.</td><td> • Robots is as visually engaging as the best digitally animated films • (If the plot doesn't grab you,) the look of the film will. • The directors have created a robot world to stir the imagination • gaudy colours run riot • ... wow factor ... </td></tr><tr><td>There's a lot of action / It's exciting.</td><td> • there's plenty of high-octane action • content guaranteed to guard against boredom • an action sequence pops up every five minutes </td></tr><tr><td>He likes the actor, Robin Williams. / Robin Williams' acting is good.</td><td> • Robin Williams provides plenty of laughs • Robin Williams is the only actor worth mentioning • Williams brings life and energy to his role • Ninety per cent of this comes from Williams' performance. </td></tr><tr><td>It's entertaining / funny.</td><td> • you'll probably enjoy yourself • plenty of laughs • And, of course, there's the humour </td></tr></table>	Reason (why the writer likes the film)	Quotation	The film looks good.	• Robots is as visually engaging as the best digitally animated films • (If the plot doesn't grab you,) the look of the film will. • The directors have created a robot world to stir the imagination • gaudy colours run riot • ... wow factor ...	There's a lot of action / It's exciting.	• there's plenty of high-octane action • content guaranteed to guard against boredom • an action sequence pops up every five minutes	He likes the actor, Robin Williams. / Robin Williams' acting is good.	• Robin Williams provides plenty of laughs • Robin Williams is the only actor worth mentioning • Williams brings life and energy to his role • Ninety per cent of this comes from Williams' performance.	It's entertaining / funny.	• you'll probably enjoy yourself • plenty of laughs • And, of course, there's the humour	4
Reason (why the writer likes the film)	Quotation
The film looks good.	• Robots is as visually engaging as the best digitally animated films • (If the plot doesn't grab you,) the look of the film will. • The directors have created a robot world to stir the imagination • gaudy colours run riot • ... wow factor ...
There's a lot of action / It's exciting.	• there's plenty of high-octane action • content guaranteed to guard against boredom • an action sequence pops up every five minutes
He likes the actor, Robin Williams. / Robin Williams' acting is good.	• Robin Williams provides plenty of laughs • Robin Williams is the only actor worth mentioning • Williams brings life and energy to his role • Ninety per cent of this comes from Williams' performance.
It's entertaining / funny.	• you'll probably enjoy yourself • plenty of laughs • And, of course, there's the humour

Question	Answer	Marks
	No: <table><tr><th>Reason (why the writer doesn't like the film)</th><th>Quotation</th></tr><tr><td>It's boring. / It's not a well-made film.</td><td> • The dreary plot • If the plot doesn't grab you • it more often resembles a video game • some nuts and bolts missing • Robots is not one of those must-see animated digital movies </td></tr><tr><td>The story is predictable / lacks originality.</td><td> • The narrative is familiar fairy-tale stuff </td></tr><tr><td>The other actors' performances are disappointing.</td><td> • Mechanical performances? • His co-stars read their lines, but don't do anything more than that </td></tr><tr><td>The reviewer is not a (5-year-old) child.</td><td> • The dreary plot is targeted squarely at five-year-olds. • Robots is not one of those must-see animated digital movies that works as well for adults as for children. </td></tr></table>	Reason (why the writer doesn't like the film)	Quotation	It's boring. / It's not a well-made film.	• The dreary plot • If the plot doesn't grab you • it more often resembles a video game • some nuts and bolts missing • Robots is not one of those must-see animated digital movies	The story is predictable / lacks originality.	• The narrative is familiar fairy-tale stuff	The other actors' performances are disappointing.	• Mechanical performances? • His co-stars read their lines, but don't do anything more than that	The reviewer is not a (5-year-old) child.	• The dreary plot is targeted squarely at five-year-olds. • Robots is not one of those must-see animated digital movies that works as well for adults as for children.
Reason (why the writer doesn't like the film)	Quotation
It's boring. / It's not a well-made film.	• The dreary plot • If the plot doesn't grab you • it more often resembles a video game • some nuts and bolts missing • Robots is not one of those must-see animated digital movies
The story is predictable / lacks originality.	• The narrative is familiar fairy-tale stuff
The other actors' performances are disappointing.	• Mechanical performances? • His co-stars read their lines, but don't do anything more than that
The reviewer is not a (5-year-old) child.	• The dreary plot is targeted squarely at five-year-olds. • Robots is not one of those must-see animated digital movies that works as well for adults as for children.

Question	Answer	Marks
7	Give two features of a review as shown in Text A. Tick (✓) two boxes. Award up to 2 marks for: - intended audience - summary of the plot.	2

Question	Answer	Marks
8	What type of text is this? Award 1 mark for one of the following: information text / news report.	1

Question	Answer	Marks
9	Look at the first paragraph (lines 1–3). Give one word that means 'shocked'. Award 1 mark for: stunned.	1

Question	Answer	Marks
10	Look at the second paragraph (lines 4–7). What is the effect of the phrase not even? Award 1 mark for any of the following: • It shows that what follows next in the text is surprising. • It contrasts previous information. • It emphasises the skill of the computer programme / how amazing AlphaGo is (at making decisions / playing Go).	1

Question	Answer	Marks
Look at the third paragraph (lines 8–11).
11(a)	Give one word that means ‘beaten’. Award 1 mark for: • surpassed.	1
11(b)	Give one example of the passive voice. Award 1 mark for: • is considered.	1

Question	Answer	Marks
12	Look at the fourth paragraph (lines 12–14). Identify the main clause in the third sentence. Award 1 mark for: • players win.	1

Question	Answer	Marks
13	Look at the fifth paragraph (lines 15–16). Why does the writer use two short, simple sentences? Award 1 mark for: • for dramatic effect / impact / to emphasise a point.	1

Question	Answer	Marks
14(a)	What makes the success by AlphaGo so remarkable? List up to six points. Award 3 marks for 5–6 correct points. Award 2 marks for 3–4 correct points. Award 1 mark for 2 correct points. Award 0 marks for 0–1 correct points. • Other players were stunned by AlphaGo's success • AlphaGo beat a (human) champion player. • (It's the first time) a computer programme won by a large margin (4–1). • The programme is mostly self-taught. • The computer programme played millions of games against itself. • No-one knows how the programme makes decisions / 'analyses the game position and picks its next move'. • Go is a very complex game / is 'probably the most sophisticated game invented by humans so far'. / There are more possible positions in Go than atoms in the universe. • Go requires creative and strategic thinking. • It is a big step up from what computers have achieved in the past. • AlphaGo's learning strategy could help solve real-life problems in the future (e.g. medical diagnoses/ pursuing scientific research).	3
14(b)	Using the information from your list, write a summary of the significance of the win by AlphaGo. Include 4–5 points from your list. Write up to 50 words. Use your own words as much as possible. Award up to 2 marks for a coherent summary that includes 4-5 points. For example: • For the first time a computer programme beat a champion player in the extremely complex game of Go and shocked the community. No one knows how the programme makes decisions but its strategy could help to solve scientific problems in the future. Award 1 mark for a summary that includes some but not all of the main points. Award 0 marks for a summary made up of facts which are not synthesized. Do not award more than 1 mark where the summary exceeds 50 words. Accept words lifted from the text where they contribute to a cohesive summary.	2

Section B: WritingNotes to markers

- Use the marking grids on the following pages.
- Marking should always begin from the lowest mark in each column and work upward.
- A 'best fit' judgement should be made in judging first in which box to place the response and then, within that box, which mark is appropriate.
- The lower mark within a box should be given if some the criteria have been met but not all.
- Note on extent:
Award 0 marks where the performance fails to meet the lowest criteria.
Award 0 marks for 20 words or fewer.
Award a maximum of 7 marks for responses of between 21 and 60 words.
You need not count the words unless you think there will be fewer than 60. In normal-sized handwriting 60 words will be approximately 8 lines.

15 Write a review for your school newsletter.

You should consider:

- What will you review? For example, a book, a game, a film, a gadget, clothing.
- What are its good and bad points?
- Who would you recommend it to?

	Marks
Creation of texts (Wc)	5
Vocabulary and language (Wv)	3
Grammar and punctuation (Wp)	7
Structure of texts (Ws)	7
Word structure [spelling] (Ww)	3
[Total 25]

Creation of texts (Wc)	Vocabulary and language (Wv)	Structure of texts (Ws)	Grammar and punctuation (Wg)	Word structure (Ww) (spelling)
[5 marks]	[3 marks]	[7 marks]	[7 marks]	[3 marks]
Content is wholly suitable for the intended audience. Text is written from a clear and well-presented viewpoint. i.e., contains detail that sustains interest with writer's style / personal response which emphasises particular points. Uses relevant features consistently for a chosen purpose to clarify meaning. Some combinations of structural, linguistic and literary features to create a specific effect.		The response is presented clearly and is well-organised using a good range of organisational features accurately. Ideas are developed with chronological or logical links throughout the text from an effective introduction to a successful conclusion. Paragraphs are used successfully to structure the content. There is effective cohesion within and between paragraphs. A good range of sentence openings and connectives are used appropriately to support content.	Grammatical structures are almost always accurate throughout the text. For example: - a wide range of sentence types are used accurately and effectively to support the text type. - detail and shades meaning conveyed through the grammatical structure of sentences, e.g., controlling the order of clauses in complex sentences. - Consistent use of formal and/or informal register according to context, purpose and audience. Punctuation is accurate and used to enhance meaning, for example: - commas, ellipses, colons, semi-colons, dashes and hyphens are used accurately to clarify and enhance meaning - conventions of layout are always applied effectively and consistently e.g., bullet points.
[4–5]		[6–7]	[6–7]

Creation of texts (Wc)	Vocabulary and language (Wv)	Structure of texts (Ws)	Grammar and punctuation (Wg)	Word structure (Ww) (spelling)
Content is suitable for the intended audience. Viewpoints are well-presented and consistent throughout. Uses relevant features consistently for a chosen purpose to clarify meaning. May begin to add structural and literary features in parts of the text.	The response is relevant using a vocabulary accurately for the purpose / text type. Uses language precisely to clarify and extend meaning.	The response is presented clearly and is well-organised using a range of organisational features accurately. Ideas are developed with chronological or logical links throughout the text though there may be some inconsistencies. Paragraphs are used to help structure the text where the main idea is usually supported by following sentences. A range of sentence openings and connectives are used appropriately to support content.	Grammatical structures are mostly accurate throughout the text, e.g., • a range of sentence types are used to support the text type. • Some detail and shades of meaning through the grammatical structure of sentences, e.g., controlling the order of clauses in complex sentences. • Formal and/or informal register is generally used appropriately according to context, purpose and audience. A range of punctuation e.g., • commas, ellipses, colons, semi-colons, dashes and hyphens are used mostly accurately to clarify meaning. • Conventions of layout are applied consistently e.g., bullet points.	Spelling is usually correct throughout. There may occasional be phonetically plausible attempts at complex words. Correct spelling of most, not all, polysyllabic words, e.g., accommodation, appear, information, probably, separate, business, essentially, wondering/wandering.
[3]	[3]	[4–5]	[4–5]	[3]

Creation of texts (Wc)	Vocabulary and language (Wv)	Structure of texts (Ws)	Grammar and punctuation (Wg)	Word structure (Ww) (spelling)
Content is mostly relevant using some literary techniques appropriate to the text type. Main features of the text type, if appropriate, are evident. Viewpoints are generally clear and help engage the reader's interest for the most part.	Creates and controls meaning through precise use of a range and variety of language. Creates effects by using a range of linguistic and literary techniques.	The response is generally well-organised and attempts the use of some organisational features. Some attempt to sequence relevant ideas logically. Paragraphs / sections are evident, though not always consistently or appropriately. Related points are grouped together or linked by time sequencers. Movement between paragraphs or sections, may be disjointed with a limited range of sentence openings and connectives.	Grammatical structures are generally accurate throughout the text, e.g., • Use of some range of sentence types to support the text type. • Some complex sentences attempted to create effect. • Formal and/or informal register is attempted if relevant e.g., depending on target audience Some range of punctuation: • e.g., commas, semi-colons, dashes and hyphens) is used accurately to clarify meaning. • There may be evidence of comma splicing. Note: if punctuation is totally lacking and other descriptors met then give the lower mark here.	Spelling of common and some less-common words, including polysyllabic and compound words, is generally accurate, e.g. friend, another, around, because, anything, something. Spelling of plurals and some past and present words is generally accurate, e.g., boxes, clothes, told, stopped, wanted.
[2]	[2]	[2–3]	[2–3]	[2]

Creation of texts (Wc)	Vocabulary and language (Wv)	Structure of texts (Ws)	Grammar and punctuation (Wg)	Word structure (Ww) (spelling)
Some material included that is relevant to the task. The writer's attitude to the subject inconsistently conveyed, with some attempt to engage the reader. Some elements of the text type can be seen; a maximum of 1 mark can be awarded if not the correct genre.	Language is simple, relevant and suitable for the text type. Language and meaning of words/phrases is mainly clear, with some errors.	Some attempt to organise the overall text. Some basic sequencing of ideas in relation to the stimulus. Paragraphs / sections are evident with related points grouped together or linked by time sequence. Movement between paragraphs or sections, is disjointed with a very limited range of sentence openings and connectives.	Basic grammatical structures are generally correct, e.g., • subject and verb generally agree • past and present tense verbs are generally consistent. • simple and some compound sentences • some complex sentences may be attempted to expand detail but not always successfully. • Formal and/or informal register may be attempted but not consistently according to context, purpose and audience. Punctuation: • Demarcation of straightforward sentences is usually correct. • Commas are used in lists and occasionally to mark clauses. Note: learners should gain marks for good English with punctuation errors rather than lose marks for essentially good English.	Spelling of high frequency words is generally correct, e.g., their/there, when, were, what, some, etc.
[1]	[1]	[1]	[1]	[1]

Creation of texts (Wc)	Vocabulary and language (Wv)	Structure of texts (Ws)	Grammar and punctuation (Wg)	Word structure (Ww) (spelling)
No creditable response	No creditable response	No creditable response	No creditable response	No creditable response
[0]	[0]	[0]	[0]	[0]